The Magic Begins!
Christmas at Callanwolde • December 5-18, 2011

The magic of the holidays begins with Christmas at Callanwolde, a spectacular 14-day Atlanta tradition. You'll be transported into a magical world the minute you enter the magnificent Gothic-Tudor mansion. Transformed by Atlanta's top interior designers, the historic Callanwolde estate will capture the spirit and charm of the holidays. Period furniture, designer treasures, fine art pieces and dazzling Christmas trees will reflect a historic Christmas in Atlanta reminiscent of the glorious era when the Candler family lived here. Visitors will delight in the special activities for families, seasonal shopping, entertaining cabaret nights and music of the holidays played on the Aeolian pipe organ. This season, create a new tradition with all that Christmas at Callanwolde has to offer!
